CORNERS CORNERED.

And Captured by Shrewd Operators Who Always Mean Business.

It is impossible to keep track of the varied real estate transactions of Cheboygan, but the appropriation of the valuable ground from Main to Huron on Division streets at a good figure, by Humphrey, McGinn and Nelson cannot escape notice, because it is significant of a forward movement, and great good to Cheboygan. It is safe to say that permanent improvements will be made worthy of the excellent men who now own it; men who are always at the front in anything pertaining to the welfare of Cheboygan. Post & Van Arsdales have agreed to contribute the free use of their south wall if the parties will erect a brick block to the corner. The frame dwelling on the ground will be removed and elegant structures will arise to add to the ever enlarging prestige and prosperity of favored Cheboygan.

Drowned.

John McGinnis was drowned Thursday afternoon about four o'clock, in Lake Huron. He was employed on the scow Essex, which was taking a load of lumber from this port to Drummond's Island and was knocked overboard by the boom striking him. George Paquette, who was on board, witnessed the accident, and immediately threw overboard a couple of slabs, one of which McGinnis caught. Mr. Paquette then jumped into a heavy boat, that was used by the crew for picking up stone, and called for one of the crew to get in and assist him, but there was only one oar in the craft, and with this Mr. Paquette sculled with all the skill and force he possessed, but as he had to work against the wind, he could not make fast headway, and Mc-Ginnis sank just as they got within a few feet of him, and he never came up again. He worked for Mr. Lathrop during the winter, on Drummond's Island, and it is thought came from Canada.
Mr. Paquette says he warned him a number of times to look out for the boom. The Essex returned this morning being out all night, and Mr. Paquette looked as though he had been fished out of the lake himself, being completely soaked with the rain.

A Suggestion.

As Cheboygan grows in numbers, enterprises, and importance, the need of a public park is apparent to all who know the great discomfort of a city where there is no place of beauty, shade, and rest to which all classes of wearied ones can go and secure recreation and a new lease of life. We think it time for the Council to consider the propriety of purchasing several acres of land to be fitted up as a park, where there will be trees, flowers, fountains, fish, animals, music-shade, quiet, and rest. In ten years it could be perfected and would conduce to the morals, aesthetic taste, and general good of all. A. P. Newton, our esteemed citizen, has ground on Dresser and Third street that would make an excellent site for a park. We do not know whether or no it could be bought, if so why not buy it, if not, why not begin to locate the park of Cheboygan elsewhere.

A Rich Entertainment.

The good sisters of St. Mary's have kindly consented to prepare and give an exhibition of music, recitations and plays. This is the first time Cheboygan has ever had the opportunity of enjoying an evening with such a presentation from these efficient workers for good.
Next Tuesday eve week, the 19th, is the time. Particulars next week.

Cheboygan Celebrates.

A splendid excursion on the glorious Fourth, on the magnificent steamer Messenger, with the popular Captain Bouchard, to that Gem of the Lake, St.
Helena Island, under the auspices of the ladies of the Independent Church. All for patriotism, a grand good time and money. Particulars next week.

Peter McArthur's crew, near Detour, left him because of the loneliness of the place, and were brought here yesterday.
The foreman, Robt. Kemp, has gone to East Saginaw for another crew. It is hard to be contented away from Cheboygan.

There were seven horses started in the 250 race Wednesday at Springfield, O.
Five heats were trotted, Wm. T. W. S.
Humphrey's horse, coming in 3rd in the first, 4th in the second, 3rd in the third, 4th in the fourth, and 3rd in the fifth.
In the fourth heat he was coming in a good second, when he lost his feet on the home stretch, allowing two horses to pass him. Best time 2:30 1/4.

The sheriff of Emmet county was in the village yesterday looking for a defaulting treasurer of one of the townships of that county, who, it is claimed, got away with about $1,300 of township funds. He was tracked to Cheboygan, where he arrived Wednesday forenoon, on the down train, but here all traces of him were lost. It is supposed he took passage from this port on some boat.

First picnic of the season, next Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the Opera House, upon which occasion Newell & Scott's Comedy Company will be masters of ceremonies. A general invitation is extended the public to attend and enjoy the fun, of which, according to press notices, there will be any amount. If you want a good, genuine, jolly laugh, don't fail to take in the pic-nic.

August Siles, a Sweede working at Duncan, got on a drunk Saturday night and run across a fight, got shot at twice, struck with a club, kicked with heavy boots; result, about half the scalp raised and cut open, and several bruises on the body. After the scrimmage he hid under the tramway, where he was found two or three hours afterwards, insensible and nearly dead from loss of blood.
Dr. T. A. Perrin was called and patched him up, and he is fast recovering under the doctor's treatment.

Ohio Republicans.

Republicans of Ohio have bravely and wisely done their significant work in convention, and nominated Judge J. B.
Foraker, from Hamilton county, an impassioned, popular orator, an able lawyer, a gallant soldier, possessed of as-telling qualities of character as can be found in a man only thirty-seven years of age. He is unimpeachable in his record as an officer, soldier, citizen and leader; immensely popular with the masses, entirely outside of any quarrel, he is eminently qualified to lead the ticket, which is a very strong one.

The platform is clear and forcible on all vital issues, defining plainly the ground occupied by the Republican party, without the least attempt to evade, and bears evident marks of master workmen in statesmanship. It endorses our President, wants all the industries of America protected, it approves the Scott liquor law, and favors the submission of constitutional amendments concerning the liquor traffic, wants the prison contract system done away with and wants the repeal of the law restricting the time to ask for arrears of pensions.

Never was the Republican party in Ohio more united, harmonious and ready for a thorough canvass and a hard fight, or more worthy of success than now.
